Yale University invites international college students to experience the academically rigorous and innovative atmosphere of Yale Summer Session at a more affordable rate. IVY courses do not carry Yale College credit, but these summer classes are held to the same demanding academic standards as credit-bearing Yale courses. Be sure to ask your registrar if you may transfer IVY coursework to your home institution for credit!

July 2 - August 3, 2018

Learn more and apply at https://summer.yale.edu/IVY
IVY Courses

American Vernacular Music
Examine the rich and varied musical traditions created by performers across the United States during the long twentieth century - from jazz, blues and country, to rock 'n' roll and zydeco.

American Regionalism
Explore the phenomenon of regionalism in American culture by considering the history of "regionalism" and its depiction of American literature. Study the texts of Robert Frost, Mark Twain, and more.

Writing for Cross Cultural Understanding
Prepare for rigorous college writing courses by reviewing the basics of English grammar and syntax while learning strategies of analysis, argument, and source use. This course is designed primary for students whose first language is not English.

IVY courses do not offer Yale credit

---

Two IVY Courses
- 2 Noncredit Courses: $3,480
- Room & Board: $3,435
- Health Insurance: $70
- Total: $6,985

IVY + YSS Courses
- 1 Noncredit + 1 Credit: $4,980
- Room & Board: $3,435
- Health Insurance: $70
- Total: $8,485

Two YSS Courses
- 2 Yale Credit Courses: $6,480
- Room & Board: $3,435
- Health Insurance: $70
- Total: $9,985

---

Yale Summer Session
IVY Program