Universitas 21 Health Sciences Summer School
University of Johannesburg
16-28 July 2017

“Global Health and the Social Determinants of Health”

INFORMATION FOR INSTITUTIONS
QUICK FACTS

- Full details about the U21 Health Sciences Summer School 2017 can be found at www.u21health.org/summer-school-2017
- Dates: 16-28 July 2017
- Topic: Global Health and the Social Determinants of Health
- Cost of Program: $800 USD per participating student which includes: accommodation, ground transport in Johannesburg, catering, cultural activities, registration, certification and materials
- Application are available: 21 November 2016
- Up to 50 students can participate
- For undergraduate students in health sciences programs
- Up to 5 nominated students’ applications to be sent to Johannesburg by 31 March 2017
- Institutions informed that their students have been selected by 21 April 2017
- $500 USD subsidy available for each U21 HS member university sending at least 1 student
- Four $500 USD competitive Executive Scholarships available for students
- The period of the summer school will be a winter season in Johannesburg
Application Timelines

- Applications are available Monday 21 November, 2016.
- All student applications should be submitted to an individual or panel of academics at the Home Institution, and then up to five students should be nominated and sent to Johannesburg.
- The five selected completed applications from each university should be sent to Sibusiso Mdletshe, Sibusiso at sibusisom@uj.ac.za no later than Friday 31 March, 2017.
- The names of successful applicants will be notified to home institutions no later than Friday 21 April, 2017. The University of Johannesburg will accept up to 50 students for this program.
- Students who have been selected for the Scholarship will be informed by Friday 5 May 2017.
- Students must confirm their participation by Friday 12 May 2017.

Who is this program for?

- Undergraduate students who have completed their first year of studies.
- Students from the following programs: dentistry, pharmacy, nursing, midwifery, nutrition, medicine, public health, physiotherapy, occupational therapy, speech pathology, audiology, optometry. Please contact Caroline if you have any questions about disciplines accepted.
- U21 Health Sciences Group member universities:
  - The University of Auckland
  - University of Melbourne
  - University of Queensland
  - University of British Columbia
  - Tecnologico de Monterrey
  - Pontificia Universidad Catolica de Chile
  - Fudan University
  - The University of Hong Kong
  - Korea University
  - Lund University
  - University College Dublin
  - University of Glasgow
  - University of Birmingham
  - University of Nottingham
  - University of Johannesburg
U21 HS Subsidy Program

Each U21 HS member university sending at least one student to the U21 HS Summer School will be entitled to a $500 USD subsidy. The subsidy will be deducted from the invoice sent to the home institution by the University of Johannesburg. Home institutions are free to decide if they want to use the subsidy for one student or divide it between all the students from their institution attending the programme.

Accounting: Please inform Caroline Voisine to whom and where the invoice should be made out to for the student program fees.

U21 HS Executive Scholarships Programme

The U21 HSG is providing funding for 4 ‘Executive Scholarships’ ($500 USD each). The scholarships will be competitive and based on merit. Interested students have to mention on their application that they wish to apply for the scholarship and answer the 2 questions provided on the form. A U21 Health Science Group selection panel will assign the scholarships and recipients will be notified no later than 5 May 2017.

Contact Information

For queries regarding the academic program, please contact Sibusiso Mdletshe.

For general queries about the Summer School, please contact Caroline Voisine.